

THE PILSA COMPANY PILSA is specialized in providing turnkey catering equipment solutions, we bring decades of experience as a contractor for the catering industry. Our factory in Granada is the heart of our network to international offices, and up to now Pilsa has completed projects in many countries worldwide. Our goal is to deliver exceptional product and service quality, which we have been doing for over 50 years, even to exceed the requirements of our highly professional clients. We offer bespoke solutions for the most complex and sophisticated kitchen requirements, for resorts, hotels, restaurants, retail establishments and lounges. We are specialized in creating aesthetically inspired, as well as functionally ingenious solutions for the hospitality industry in the food service sector. Our Success has been built on the respect and loyalty for our customers.. In addition, Pilsa also has several national and international branches located in Granada, Marbella, Balearic Islands, Canary Islands, Dominican Republic, Mexico and United Arab Emirates.

At our production centre, we carry out the entire manufacturing process. Skilled manual labour is complemented by the use of the most advanced technological resources, such as high-precision lasers, folding, assembly, finishing touches and 3D renders. Furthermore, we have our own Research, Development and

Innovation department, which generates an important process of continuous improvement, enabling us to adapt to the latest tendencies in the sector. Our differentiating value is the global management of projects thanks to our complete infrastructure and use of the most advanced technology, as well as fully equipping projects with the up-to-date kitchen most and tableware, which is how we provide our 360° service. The kitchen is our company's most emblematic product and we have the task of creating optimum work spaces for the stove top professionals, who are considered authentic creators of sensations. These chefs have been the inspiration for the Majestic, our flagship product, a kitchen which monoblock functional sophisticated, and personalized to "the chef's taste".

KITCHEN AND TABLEWARE

Since 1992, Pilsa has completed its 360° service through the acquisition of the Andalusian branches of Álvarez, sharing brands for a time then merging to become the Pilsa of today.

During this process, Pilsa participates as the principal actor in setting up and in the initial stages of Crisol, the most important national purchasing centre for the catering industry.

In this way, Pilsa incorporates into its pool of services a complete range of chinaware, cutlery, glassware, accessories, kitchen and tableware and furniture products, bringing together the principal brands on the market to be able to cover all the necessities of the sector.
